Observance of Paschimbanga Divas (West Bengal Day) on 20th June, 2026.

In pursuant to the directive from the Higher Education Department and Information & Cultural Affairs Department, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of our Mahavidyalaya observe the Paschimbanga Divas (West Bengal Day) on 20th June, 2026. The main objective of the programme is to commemorate the day of 20th June, 1947, when the Bengal Legislative Assembly convened to vote on the partition of Bengal under the Mountbatten Plan. The programme was aimed to impart a sense of rich cultural heritage, history and achievements of our state of West Bengal.

The main event started at 12:15 P.M at Class Room No. 102 of our college with the "Vande Matram" song. The Programme was anchored by our IQAC Co-ordinator Prof. Surajit Gupta, who welcomed the guests, faculty members, non-teaching staffs and our beloved students and also highlighted the importance of celebrating Paschimbanga Divas. After the "Vande Matram" song the inaugural address is given by our Principal Dr. Dipak Bhargava. In his inaugural address the Principal explained the historical importance of 20th June, 1947 and also emphasized the active role of our state West Bengal in Literature, science and social reforms. Moreover, our Principal had encouraged our students to maintain the values of inclusiveness, creativity and social responsibility.

On the occasion of observing Paschimbanga Divas we have organized special lectures from our four Assistant Professors Ms. Tshumila Lama of Political Science, Dr. Srinibash Ghosh of Bengali, Mr. Saifuddin Mondal of History and Dr. Debdulal Banerjee of English respectively.

In the Beginning Ms. Tshumila Lama had spoke about the historical evolution of West Bengal and also explained the importance of 20th June, 1947. She had also perfectly explained that West Bengal was born to protect the culture, language and our identity.

The other speaker Dr. Srinibash Ghosh, Assistant Professor of Bengali department had put a glimpse on the process of creation of our state West Bengal and also reflect on the pain and agony suffered by the people of Bengal. He had perfectly said that may we can only uphold the rich culture and heritage of our state West Bengal and said that we should not follow the path of pain and agony of partition.

Our Speaker Mr. Saifuddin Mondal, Assistant Professor of History department had said that the great Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee's contribution for the creation of our state West Bengal is immense and this day should be observed earlier also. He had also said that these historical events should be placed in the book of History and it should be properly taught to all the students so that their character may be properly developed and they may contribute for the development of the society.

At the end Dr. Debdulal Bandyopadhyay, Assistant Professor of English department had categorically described with many examples and perfectly compares the partition process of the Punjab state and our beloved state of West Bengal. He had summarized perfectly that how the process of partition of West Bengal had been depicted late in few of the historical books and in the literatures, as a matter of fact the after effect of the partition have been known to us in very late stage. After depicting all the process of creation of our state West Bengal Dr. Bandyopadhyay had emphasized also the role of Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee.

One of the student of English department had briefed the life history of Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee and put importance on his role in developing our state of West Bengal.

The observance of Paschimbanga Divas had witnessed the active participation of all the Faculty members, non-teaching staffs the students and the NSS volunteers. The event was well coordinated by our IQAC Coordinator Prof. Surajit Gupta.

The observance of Paschimbanga Divas concluded with a vote of thanks from the IQAC Coordinator to all the speakers. The programme was highly inspiring and engaging one All the participants actively listened to all the speakers. This observation of Paschimbanga Divas had successfully created awareness about the state's history and cultural identity among students. The participants had praised the efforts of the college for organizing such a meaningful programme of Paschimbanga divas.
